DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because figures 1-2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. It is noted that applicant discusses these figures as "conventional". The word 'conventional' is synonymous with "prior art". See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. Examiner has review the art that was presented on 12/17/04 related to the corresponding PCT application.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Melas (U.S. Patent 6,678,105) in view of Tamburelli (U.S. Patent 4,288,872).

Melas teaches a signal processing apparatus and corresponding method that includes an analog filter (202) and both an linear equalizer (208) and a nonlinear equalizer (214). Claims 1 and 5 differ from this arrangement in that equalizing filters as claimed are connected in parallel with one another instead of in series as taught by Melas. It is well known in the equalization art to place a nonlinear equalizer in parallel with a linear equalizer as taught by Tamburelli in which a resulting pulse can be readily quantized (column 1, lines 60-68) It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the series arrangement of Melas into a parallel arrangement as taught by Tamburelli so that a resulting pulse can be readily quantized.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Agarossi et al. (U.S. Patent 6,600,794) teaches the use of a non-linear Volterra equalizer in a similar environment.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 2-4 and 6-8 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The claimed apparatus as set forth in claim 2/1 and corresponding signal processing method as set forth in claim 6/5 that additionally includes a phase interpolation means/step and phase locked loop means/step that are used to process the outputs of the first adaptive equalizing means/step and the second adaptive equalizing means/step (for correcting for non-linear distortion) as set forth are neither taught by nor an obvious variation of the art of record.
